Rain Played for Both Sides in Test

Extra Defence Kept Scores Down

IN last week's third Test match, both Australia and China had two defenders on the pitch who were not listed on the team-sheets — 'keeper MUD and stopper PUDDLE.

As a result of the defence assists of these two spoilers, goals were hard to come by, and Australia did well to win 2-1.

Soccer fans realise, of course, that Australia was not twice as good as China merely because it scored a two-to-one result, but the one-goal margin at any scoring level would have been a reasonably true indication of the relative merit of the two sides on the day.

When last seen here in 1955, Chinese players proved themselves adept with the Continental style of on-the-carpet play, in which the ball is made to do most of the work.

Last week-end, the ball failed to act in the normal way — passes slowed suddenly in water puddles, or stopped dead in mud patches.

Players found it hard to keep their feet in the slippery conditions, and as a result, distribution, clearances, and goal-shooting was astray.

Nobody was surprised when the score-board was still blank at half-time.

Seen in Melbourne for the first time, Jo Marston gave a masterful exhibition of the functions of a stopper. South Australian left-back Fogant handled right-wing attacks efficiently, and Joe Ruyters, as usual, was sound in goal.

The all-Victorian attack functioned as well as conditions permitted. The first goal came immediately after the interval, and was the last move of an intricate piece of passing started by Cubero. He passed to de Bruyckere, who first-timed the ball across goal to Vella. Vella back-heeled to the incoming Loughran, who slammed it in over the confused goalie. (See picture on page 3.)

The second goal followed within two minutes when de Bruyckere flew high to meet Vella's nicely placed corner kick and nodded it down into the corner of the net.

During the remainder of the match, 'keeper Yong Pay Dor, centre-half Lao Yee, and full-backs Lee Bing Chiu and Seta Yiu kept Australia subdued.

At 63 minutes, a sudden, sharply angled shot by centre-forward Teung Wai Too from close range beat Ruyters for China's only score.

Third Replay of Hungary v. Scotland

Playing the early match commencing at 1.30 p.m., Hungary meets Scotland for the third time to-morrow at Olympic Park in another re-play of their first round World Cup tie.

They have drawn twice.

POLAND-GERMANY, TOO!

To-morrow's second match, Poland v. Germany, is also a repeat re-play after two drawn games.

Extra time of 15 minutes each way will be played if scores are tied at full time.

VICTORIANS O.K. IN LOSS TO CHINA BUT FORWARDS MISSED CHANCES

WITH the exception of the failure of the forwards to score from many opportunities which they had themselves created by smart approach play, Victoria's team as a whole played excellent soccer in losing narrowly to China, 1-2, last Sunday at Olympic Park.

Considering the state of the ground, the game was played at a reasonably fast tempo.

China was first into stride, and, after forcing corner after corner, scored through Lau Kwok Tai at 16 minutes, when Penzo was tempted out of his goal.

Victoria then forced the pace, and although combining well in attack, it was a solo effort by Don Hodgson at 43 minutes which evened the score.

Attacks at both ends were numerous in the second half, but it was China who broke through with the winning goal at 76 minutes with a 25-yard drive by Chu Wing Keung.

Play became robust on both sides in the closing stages as Victoria drove hard for goal, but failed to equalise.

Bob Wemyss and Johann Neuhold were outstanding for Victoria, and special mention must be made of Tom Jack, whose form at right full-back was reminiscent of this once great stopper at his best.

Scots Listed for World Cup Replay

SCOTLAND will play the early match against Hungary at Olympic Park to-morrow (Sunday), with the kick-off scheduled for 1.30 p.m.

The following players are requested to report promptly at 1 p.m.: Brydson, Simpson; McCall, Grant, Hyndman; Wemyss, Jack, Lawrie; Bell, Anderson, Thomas, Eggle, Blackley, Dickson, Cope-land, Carroll.

J. MARSTON,

"Josh" Marston, whose years of experience with British club, Preston North End, were evident in his play, was one of the principal instruments of Australia's success in its Test series win over China.

Quarter-Final Draw for Dockerty Cup

Sunshine City in Top Company

WITH last Sunday's defeat of Hellenic by Wilhelmina, Sunshine City remains the sole survivor of all challengers for the Dockerty Cup outside of the First Division.

RESERVE CUP SEMI-FINALS

The Harry Armstrong Reserve Cup semi-finals, to be played on a date to be fixed, were drawn at Olympic Park last Sunday:

Slavia v. Polonia,
Richmond v. Box Hill.

At first glance, the results of this draw should produce a Polonia-Richmond final.

Kurt Defris Honoured

Mr. Kurt Defris, soccer Councilor and Chairman of State Selectors, has been chosen by the Victorian Table Tennis Association to act as Manager of the Victorian team when it visits Adelaide in September to take part in the all-Australian Table Tennis Carnival.

Mr. Defris is the first "New Australian" to be thus honoured by the Table Tennis Association.

The draw for the quarter-finals, to be played on September 7, was made publicly at Olympic Park last week, and is as follows:—

Sunshine City v. Juventus.
Wilhelmina v. J.U.S.T.

Polonia v. Hakoah.
Box Hill v. Moreland.

Outsiders, Sunshine City and Box Hill, come back into calculations for the semi-finals by being drawn to play at home, a distinct advantage for both clubs.

If Polonia continues to improve, Hakoah may not reach the semi-finals.

Being drawn at home, gives Wilhelmina no particular advantage over J.U.S.T. The Dutchmen themselves seldom play at their best at Hawthorn.

3rd Division Dates Altered

With the postponement of all senior matches originally listed for August 10 to make way for the Chinese visit, and with the entire fixtures list for that day transferred to August 31, the fixtures of the Third Division and the Third Division Reserves as shown in the Year Book for August 31 must necessarily be further postponed to a date to be decided.

The new date will appear in the V.A.S.F.A. Bulletin as soon as it is made available.

LEADERS IN VITAL MATCHES TODAY

Others in Cup Trials

CLUBS with an outside chance for the First Division pennant will be battling to keep their long-shot hopes alive to-day, while the others will regard the round merely as a Cup trial.

Moreland is in both categories. Second on the ladder, it meets Box Hill at home to-day, and is also drawn to play the Hillmen in a Cup quarter-final on September 7. Moreland is fancied to win, but there won't be much in it.

J.U.S.T. meets Geelong, and the leaders will be out to clear up any doubts about their superiority arising out of their earlier match at Olympic Park. Many observers still say that Geelong was the winner on that occasion, regardless of what the record book says.

If J.U.S.T. is at full strength, and meets Geelong with the respect the ability of the Blue-Blacks deserves, the Redsox should win.

Slavia's recent form makes the Baysiders a shaky proposition against Hakoah, especially with the Blues busily stoking up their furnaces to produce the necessary steam for the Cup finals.

Juventus, too, is a problem side. Losing 0-1 to Moreland in its last League appearance, it could find Brighton hot to handle to-day, even with home ground advantage.

The extent of Polonia's improvement will be known to-day after a thoroughly testing match against Wilhelmina. Winner of this game is the hardest to pick in to-day's five fixtures.

Croatia Now at Geelong

The Croatia Soccer Club has moved both its headquarters and its home ground to Geelong, where, 'tis said, most of the club's personnel reside.

The club's pitch is Ground No. 3, Separation Street, North Geelong, and the address of its Secretary, Mr. J. Radojovic, is 26 Hughes St., North Geelong.

Vic. Team to Visit Adelaide?

THE second week-end in October is a holiday week-end in South Australia, and an invitation has been received from the Soccer Association of that State to send a Victorian team to Adelaide.

The extended nature of this season in Victoria complicates the offer, but the matter is being considered further by the Victorian Soccer Council.

FIRST GOAL TO AUSTRALIA

Frank Loughran is seen here scoring past goalke Yung Pay Dor in last week's Test after an intricate passing move commenced by Pepe Cubero. Pepe passed to de Bruyckere, who crossed to Vella. Lolly back-heeled to the incoming Loughran with this result. Note the flying mud.

BALLARAT ASSOCIATION FLOURISHING

WITH eight clubs affiliated, four Junior teams, and five grounds, the Ballarat Soccer Association is growing rapidly in health, strength, and purpose.

The Association feels ready to entertain visiting teams from Melbourne, and would like to do so in the first half of September.

Metropolitan clubs with no other commitments and a yen for a pleasant trip to Victoria's second largest provincial city should immediately contact Mr. D. Morris, 61 Peel St. North, Ballarat.

Bendigo, Too.

A similar invitation is issued by the Bendigo United Soccer Club. They would welcome enquiries from metropolitan clubs, and mention particular interest in, amongst others, Preston, Lions, Sandringham, Frankston and Dandenong.

Bendigo's Secretary is Mr. W. Clayton, 16 Finn St., Bendigo.

Remo Guardiani was taken out of last Sunday's match, China v. Victoria, when a cartilage slipped. Tough luck for both Remo and Juventus if this ace pivot doesn't recover quickly.

Heart-burnings at South Melbourne United when regulars

Junior Journal

... Barry Matthews.

THE Under 17 interstate trippers and their Managers, Mr. Don Joiner and Mr. Sam Newman, had ample time to have a look-see at Adelaide. They arrived Tuesday morning, and left Thursday night.

The Skolnik Cup challenge was played as a curtain-raiser on Wednesday night to the China v. South Australia match.

How can you figure it. Wooden-spooners Under 20 Essendon "B" defeated Brighton, a mid-ladder squad. Then Brighton trounces St. Kilda, a really big gun and runner-up in the League.

What gives — enthusiasm? A certain Under 15 laddie plays with South Yarra on Saturday mornings, and it's no surprise to see him in Wesley's Under 17 side in the afternoons. Stewards!

Third Division.

Hot Fight for Runner-up Berth

— Paul Borg

MAIN interest in the Third Division lies in the race for the second promotional berth. In the last round, Victorian Colts kept closer to the leaders when they defeated Dandenong Rovers, and Yarra Park increased its lead by pegging back Hayduk.

Coburg and Frankston threw their hats into the ring with convincing wins over Brunswick and Moorabbin City.

With Yarra Park safe for its points to-day, and with the Moorabbin-Brunswick match having little bearing on the final outcome, all eyes will be on the remaining four fixtures, which are vital for each of the eight clubs participating.

Team notes from Yallourn's Assistant Secretary, Miss May Caldwell, clear, concise, and well-written. Wish they arrived EVERY week, now that the internationals are over.

Gordon Pynt, former Hakoah forward, has transferred to Maccabi, and will be out with his new club to-day.

Dandenong Rovers are having a very good season — Seniors, Reserves and Junior Under 17's all in the race in their respective Leagues.

Second Division.

TENSE FLAG BATTLE ON AGAIN TODAY

... Des Hamilton.

THE only match in to-day's round which has little or no bearing on promotion or relegation is the local derby between Prahran and South Yarra, and, on form, George Cross appears to be a safe winner over Footscray City.

In the remaining three fixtures, five clubs — Hellenic, Yallourn, South Melbourne United, Richmond, and Preston — are vitally involved in the promotional race, and Sunshine City desperately requires points to get clear of the relegation zone.

Even to-day's matches may not break the deadlock, but it may be resolved when four of the leaders — George Cross, Hellenic, South Melbourne United and Yallourn — clash with each other next week.

Soccer News Cops the Lot

"SOCCER NEWS" doesn't create the news. It merely receives it and passes it on. But whether it is an official error or the very occasional printer's error, "Soccer News" cops the brick-bats.

For instance, the ladders. These are supplied by Association Secretaries and Registrars. "Soccer News" cannot check them, but gets the nasty notes and telephone calls when they're wrong. (Memo: Denis Chambers—Goals "for" and "against" don't square in any of the Junior ladders. Check Heidelberg Under 15 "goals for" — they claim 12 more. Also check Preston's points, same League.)

Incorrect ladder was the cause of a complaint by Dandenong a couple of weeks ago — they lay fifth instead of second on the ladder.

Complaint by State players — and others — re last Sunday's team in last week's "News." That was the team supplied by the Chairman of State Selectors. "Soccer News" does not select State teams!

Nasty complaint from old "friend," Mr. Boluch about a listed fixture in "Soccer News" that wasn't played. It was still a fixture when "Soccer News" went to press on Wednesday morning. Perhaps the entire issue should have been withdrawn from circulation when this Fourth Division match was postponed?

And, of course, "Soccer News" was blamed by Mr. Deguara for the rare printer's error which had Hellenic splitting points with Yallourn instead of George Cross.

All this explains why essential equipment for Editors includes one thick, tough hide.

Venue for School Final Changed

THE final of the Technical Schools competition last Wednesday was not played on the Olympic Park pitch as originally planned due to the extremely bad state of the surface.

The boys were permitted to use the dressing rooms, but played on a nearby field. Venue for next Wednesday's Dunking Shield challenge is yet to be decided.

RUYTERS IN GOOD FORM
